Yorktown Systems Group Awarded Contract To Execute Its Counter IED Mobile Advanced Tactical Training System (CMATTS) For The Idaho and Montana National Guard

Yorktown Systems Group, Inc., a Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business, announced today that it has signed an agreement with CACI, International, Inc. to conduct collective Counter IED instruction and training for deploying units in the Idaho and Montana National Guard. Yorktown will use its proven CMATTS methodology in conducting this training.

The Yorktown CMATTS mission is to conduct individual, collective, and battle-staff CIED training as required by DoD directives. The training is conducted at a suitable unit location in order to meet pre-deployment requirements. The Yorktown system ensures units are prepared to execute their primary missions in an IED environment.

Bryan Dyer, President and CEO said today, "We have an extremely talented and highly trained instructor team that provides unique collective CIED training for deploying units. Our team is led by Mr. Nick Fuller, a retired Army Ranger officer, who is an expert in CIED training techniques. Our proven training system starts at the individual level and culminates in collective Situational Training Exercises that incorporate tactical C-IED scenarios. Our CMATTS approach is to serve as an enabler to commanders by ensuring units are properly trained and prepared to face the challenges of the CIED fight before they deploy".

Yorktown Systems Group, Inc. is a focused professional services company that intuitively understands the missions of their Government customers. As a Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business, this company strives to match employment opportunities with Veterans with the belief that Veterans, who volunteered to serve the Nation, are the cornerstone of a quality workforce that can exceed the requirements of Customers.

Yorktown Systems Group, Inc.'s corporate reputation is paramount in their long-term vision. The company's name was conceived from the last major battle of the Revolutionary War, the Battle of Yorktown, in which the nation's freedom was ensured and allowed Soldiers to go home to become our country's first veterans. The name of the company conveys their values of:

- ✓ Service to the Government and the DoD
- ✓ Dedication to Veterans
- ✓ Laser focus on demonstrable success
