FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Yorktown Systems Group, Inc. Awarded Contract to Provide Training for Fort Polk and the 162d Foreign Security Forces-Training Teams Brigade.

Yorktown Systems Group Inc., a leading Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business, was awarded a contract on August 13th, 2009 by the Fort Polk Contracting Office to provide Improvised Explosive Device-Defeat (IED-D) and other training services for the 162d Infantry Brigade.

“We are tremendously excited about this opportunity to support the 162d Infantry Brigade in preparing Soldiers for deployment to Iraq or Afghanistan. It is an honor to support our nation’s deploying Soldiers.” said Bryan Dyer, President and CEO of Yorktown Systems Group, Inc. “We understand that this is a difficult mission, and that we must provide the highest quality training. We have an extremely knowledgeable training team with recent and relevant in-theater experience, which will allow us to execute the rigorous demands of this requirement.”

Yorktown Systems Group, Inc. is a focused professional services company that intuitively understands the missions of their Government customers. As a Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business, this company strives to match employment opportunities with Veterans with the belief that Veterans, who volunteered to serve the Nation, are the cornerstone of a quality workforce that can exceed the requirements of our Customers. Yorktown Systems Group, Inc.’s corporate reputation is paramount in their long-term vision. The company’s name was conceived from the last major battle of the Revolutionary War, the Battle of Yorktown, in which the nation’s freedom was ensured and allowed Soldiers to go home to become our country’s first veterans.
